GET THE BEST.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary.

NEW ILLUSTRATED EDITION.

Thoroughly revised and much enlarged.

OVER THREE THOUSAND FINE ENGRAVINGS.

Is a well nigh indispensable requisite for every intelligent family. It contains 10,000 WORDS and MEANINGS not found in other Dictionaries.

What book, beside the Bible, so indispensable as a good Dictionary?

IN ONE VOLUME OF 1840 ROYAL QUARTO PAGES.

Published by G. & C. MERRIAM, Springfield, Mass.

Sold by J. P. MAGEE, 5 Cornhill, Boston, and Booksellers generally.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review, February, 1865.

Noah Webster was, in his day, that dangerous character of whom we are bidden to 'beware," "the man of one book." And the danger has not diminished by the fact that for that one book he was rea 1y and active at laying all other books under contribution. The one book became thereby very much anational institution, not circumscribed, however, in its use and reputation to our national soil. Its great value constituted it an invaluable base for a work of enduring permanence, needing but those modifications which time is ever suggesting. . . . . Brought down to the latest demands of the day, Webster's Dictionary is still a national institution.

We recommend our brethren in the ministry especially, everywhere, whatever sacrifice it may cost, to procure a copy of this invaluable work. The Bible, Cruden's Concordance, and Webster's Dictionary Unabridged, the latest and the best, should lie side by side on the minister's table, as his constant companions.—Western Methodist Protestant, Springfield, Ohio, March 15, 1865.

Why will not a dozen of the young people join in contributing a dollar apiece, and bearing this grand book as most welcome "surprise gift" to their pastor? Depend on it, he would preach the better tor it, and they would thus have their reward. — Boston Watchman and Reflector, April 6, 1865.

More Valuable than Treasury Notes.—How that old cynic, Sam Johnson, would have reveled through Webster's massive new Unabridged! How he would have gloated over its magnificent letter-press and tis illustrations, beautiful as new Treasury Notes, and much more valuable to the student. I he Merriams have incurred a fabulous expense in having the whole work rewritten, reset recast, at a drepublished. It is not a mere revision, but a reconstruction. To insure excellence in typography, it comes from the Riverside Press, which is all that need be said about its mechanical execution. It is a marvelous specimen of learning, labor, research, and taste. It is by far the greatest literary work of the age.—Beltimore American.

RELICIOUS BOOKS.

The great interest evinced at this time on the subject of Religion has created a demand for those admirable books,-

HEAVEN OUR HOME.

We have no Savior but Jesus, and no Home but Heaven.

MEET FOR HEAVEN.

A state of preparation on earth the only preparation for a state of glory in Heaven.

IN HEAVEN. LIFE

There faith is changed into sight, and hope is passed into blissful fruition.

The enormous sale which these books have had, more than ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND COPIES, attest to their value and the interest of the topics treated. Of all the many notices received, the publishers select the following from Rev. Samuel L. Tuttle, Assistant Secretary of the Am. Bible Society:—

"I wish that every Christian person could have the perusal of these writings. I can never be sufficiently thankful to him who wrote them for the service that he has rendered to me and all others.

'They have given form and subsumee to every thing revealed in the Scriptwes respecting our heavenly home of love, and they have done not a little to invest it with the most powerful attractions to my heart. Since I have enjoyed the privilege of tollowing the thought of their author, I have felt that there was a reality in all these things which I have never felt before; and I find myself often thanking God for putting it into the heart of a poor worm of the dust to spread such glorious representations before our race, all of whom stand in need of such a rest."

The price of each volume, handsomely bound in cloth, is $1.25.

Prof. Ingraham's celebrated Works:

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID,

THE PILLAR OF FIRE,
THE THRONE OF DAVID,

Are still the most popular works of the day. The price of each volume, bound in cloth, gilt, is $2.00.

Sold by all booksellers, and mailed, post-paid, by the publishers, ROBERTS

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

EDUCATION.

The literary institutions, both local and general, that look to the N. H. Conference for favor and support present themselves with an air of assurance increasingly joyful and confident, not as subordinate workers, but as the lawful peers of other instrumentalities in the work of Christianity. If they have ever appeared as beggars, humbly soliciting the charity of the Church, they have now ceased from that attitude, and claim attention as the best-paying stock for its investments, and as an indispensable and powerful agency in its prosperity. Though yet in their infancy and in comparative feebleness, still they have sprung into characteristic denominational stature and efficiency, and are already saying joyfully to those who struggled to give them birth, lo! here are we, and the children whom the Lord hath given us.

The N. H. Conference Seminary and Female College was born in poverty in 1845. In 1857, through the noble generosity of the Conference, it assumed an amplitude and beauty more appropriate to its design and mission. In 1862, it underwent the trial by fire. It has now arisen from its ashes, and stands a proud monument to the determination and liberality of the Conference. It is itself an educator. By its situation, and the beautiful prospect it commands, it is constantly teaching the lessons of aesthetic culture, and enlarging the heart. It is manned by an able faculty, and is doing a work of incalculable benefit to the Church. It deserves its vigorous support, and especially an enlarged patronage on which it entirely depends. The number of students during the year is reported greater than at any time since its enlargement. Let it now be endowed, and placed in financial independence.

The M. G. Biblical Institute has a glorious record and a hopeful future.

In connection with its younger sister at Evanston, it has sent out six hundred into the ranks of the ministry. It has good prospect of exchanging its small tenement for a more glorious house. It has a history and association that money cannot buy. It has a working faculty and working students; and the Spirit and blessing of the Lord are there. It is the business of the Church this year to put its continued and greatly enlarged usefulness beyond the reach of contingencies.

The Wesleyan University, in its facilities for educating, in its endowments, and in its prospects, stands better than ever before. It has a record in its alumni, and in the influence they have exerted and now wield in the Church, such as perhaps no other institution of its class can boast. It asks the Church to make it, in its appointments and furnishings, commensurate with the demands of the age, and with the dignity and ability of the denomination it represents. It asks to be held in the estimation of the Church, where it stands in fact, - as the strong-hold of its literary and higher educational influence in the territory of the East. All these institutions, efficient as they are, fall greatly below the standard which the Church requires. A just denominational pride and a far-seeing wisdom would cause the Church to strain every nerve to render them not merely equal, but superior, to other institutions of their class in every excellent endowment. They cry, "Give, and it shall be given you." There is that giveth, and doth not impoverish: that witholdeth, and enricheth not. And if the response of the Church, in this year of wonderful memories and glorious hopes, as it girds itself for the race of another hundred years, shall accord with the sentiments of the General Conference Committee in placing her educational interests second only to her spiritual power, and if she shall attest and embody those sentiments by her contributions, then indeed may we have reason to thank God, and take courage.

To represent this Conference in the corporation of the M. G. Biblical Institute for the three years ensuing, according to the charter recently obtained from the Massachusetts Legislature, we recommend Rev. E. Adams and Hon. T. L. Tullock; as visitors to our several institutions, the following nominations:—

M. G. Biblical Institute. — Revs. L. D. Barrows, F. K. Stratton, L. Howard, O. H. Jasper, B. W. Chase, E. R. Wilkins.

N. H. Conference Seminary and Female College. - Revs. J. Pike, R. S.

Stubbs, D. C. Babcock, S. P. Heath, G. N. Bryant, J. W. Guernsey, C. Holman, J. Smith, C. M. Dinsmore, J. B. Chapman, Esq., D. S. Dickinson, Esq., Hon. A. F. Fisk.

Wesleyan University. — Rev. S. G. Kellogg, Rev. H. L. Kelsey. Alternates. — Rev. J. Wagner, Rev. C. Young.

TEMPERANCE.

We deem the present a very important and critical epoch in the history of this great reform. The war is over; but many of the corrupt influences and lawless passions which war excited are yet active. The intense anxiety we have all felt for the nation is partially relieved, and our hands are free to grapple with the rebels of the grog-shops; and we believe that the conviction was never more profound and universal, that this huge abomination can and ought to be suppressed.

But much remains for us to do, or intemperance re-asserts its baneful dominion over this land. What will carry this beneficent work to a complete victory?

A few spasmodic efforts in separate communities? By no means.

A few nomadic lecturers? Or the isolated temperance organizations now at work? Or the partial and partisan execution of prohibitory laws? 'Twere vain to hope!

Our deliberate judgment is, that a simultaneous and earnest movement by all the churches and ministers of the land against this dire plague, by public meetings, by circulating temperance literature, by encouraging officers in the prosecution of offenders and such other measures as they may deem best, is the only feasible way of arresting this diabolical and infamous crime. It is productive of vast and heart-sickening calamities, and is supported by a deprayed public sentiment, and the pernicious example of many of our public men. Therefore, we Resolve, 1st, That we call on ministers and churches to acquit themselves of complicity with this dreadful evil by uniting in uncompromising war against it.

2d, That we thank God for the prohibitory laws of New England, and the unanimous verdict of the United-States Supreme Court that it is constitutional 3d, That we cordially commend all our people to subscribe for "The National Temperance Advocate" and the "Temperance Banner," of which our beloved Dr. Barrows is one of the editors.

4th, That we call with all earnestness on all the officers of the law to vindicate the insulted majesty of the State, and the rights of the tempted and imperilled, by a vigorous execution of the law against all traffickers in these noxious beverages.

TOBACCO.

The Committee on Tobacco offer the following resolutions for the adoption of the Conference as their Report:—

Resolved, 1st, That we adhere to our disapprobation of the use of tobacco, and to our determination not to admit those to our body who are addicted to so unbecoming a practice, which we regard as injurious to health, and prejudicial to religious influence and enjoyment.

Resolved, 2d, That, by precept and example, we will labor to extirpate and prevent a habit so detrimental to the good of society; and we especially pledge ourselves to use our best efforts to guard the young people of our congregations from so loathsome and dangerous an evil.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions: —

Resolved, 1st, That, while we devoutly thank almighty God for the success of our Sunday-school efforts in this Conference the past year, we pledge ourselves to renewed exertions in this cause for the year to come.

Resolved, 2d, That we will faithfully use our influence to increase the circulation of our Sunday-school publications in all our congregations.

Resolved, 3d, That we heartily concur in the recommendation of the Central Centenary Committee for a children's celebration of the Centenary Festival in each of the Sunday schools in our respective charges.

Resolved, 4th, That we will endeavor to carry out the provisions of our Discipline, by introducing the Catechism, and in organizing Sunday-school missionary societies.

Resolved, 5th, That we recommend that district conventions be held in connection with the several preachers' meetings during the year.

Whereas, It is in early life that changeless habits are ordinarily formed, including habits of sobriety; and, whereas, habits of intemperance, whenever formed, destroy or render useless all good qualities of character,

Therefore Resolved, 6th, That it is no inconsiderable portion of proper Sunday-school instruction to train correctly our youth on the subject of total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks.

TRACT SOCIETY.

Whereas, The Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is an instrument of great good; and

Whereas, Its Board of Managers, its wise, excellent, and indefatigable Secretary, are devising more liberal things than ever, and are sending forth so many tracts, Good-news and tract volumes, gratuitously, and, we believe, wisely;

And whereas, Our people have contributed the past year but $192.80, and about one-third of the appointments doing nothing, and all $41.40 less than reported last year; therefore

Resolved, 1st, That we will increase our efforts to raise a larger amount the coming year.

Resolved, 2d, That every preacher is hereby requested to give his people a chance to give what they will to this good cause (but let no one report what is expended for tracts).

Resolved, 3d, That, wherever it is deemed expedient, we will raise the $15 for a tract library (with or without connecting it with our Sunday schools).

and avail ourselves, in some places, of the offer of the gift library.

PARSONAGES.

The Committee on Parsonages beg leave to report, -

That three new parsonages have been erected or purchased during the past year.

One in Stark, which cost about six hundred dollars.

One in Jefferson, at a cost of fifteen hundred dollars.

One in Warren, which cost one thousand dollars.

Improvements have been made in several others, and additions have been made to the heavy articles of furniture.

We rejoice at this small advance, but judge that much more might and ought to be done. Not more than half of our societies have parsonages, and many of these remain unfurnished.

Their importance to the comfort of the ministers and the prosperity of the churches must be apparent to all.

We therefore recommend that the Conference re-adopt the resolution of last year:—

Resolved. That the Presiding Elders and preachers are requested to use vigorous efforts during the ensuing year to supply with heavy furniture all our parsonages now unsupplied, and to build or purchase and furnish houses where we have none; and, when this cannot be done, to secure by rent, for some years, a suitable house as a parsonage.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

The Committee on Ministerial Support offer the following resolutions and plan for adoption:—

Resolved, That the partial increase of estimates evinces a gratifying appreciation, on the part of the people, of the value of ministerial service, and of their willingness to give their pastors a more adequate support, in keeping with the increased expenses of living.

Resolved, That it is hoped this improvement will continue until the point of justice is reached in this regard.

Resolved, That the great demand for a talented and educated ministry can only be met by giving more attention to ministerial support, giving a compensation adequate to the demands of the times; thus encouraging young men to prepare themselves as "workmen that need not be ashamed."

Resolved, That the Presiding Elders are hereby required to call the attention of each quarterly conference to the following plan, at the first meeting for the present year, and, as far as practicable, enforce the same.

PLAN.

- 1. Let the treasurer of the stewards prepare, early in the year, an estimate of the probable amount of money wanted for the current year, including a competent support for the preacher.
- 2. After deducting from this amount the probable sums to be received from pew-rents, pew-taxes, or other funds, then
- 3. Let the balance be apportioned to the members of the congregation by a committee, these apportionments to be paid in monthly or quarterly instalments.

- 4. If some other method than apportionments is preferred, let the subject be attended to early, promptly, and efficiently; exhibiting the same energy-industry, and application to the entire matter as a good and successful business man manifests in the transaction of his ordinary daily business.
- 5. Let the preacher be paid his expenses for removing immediately upon his arrival at his appointment; but this sum should, in no instance, be reckoned as any part of his salary.
- 6. Let the preacher be paid one-twelfth part of his salary monthly in advance.
- 7. In order to secure accuracy in the management of church-funds, we recommend the appointment of an Auditor in each society, to inspect and supervise the accounts of the treasurer.

REPORT ON THE CENTENARY.

The goodness of God to us as a people during the first century of our history, now closed, calls upon us for heartfelt expressions of gratitude. It should therefore be the first object with the ministry and laity of the Church to impress ourselves deeply and lastingly with a commanding sense of our high obligations to God for such rich manifestations of his loving-kindness to us personally, in our salvation, the salvation of our families, and the upbuilding of the church at home and abroad.

Secondly, judging of the future by the past, as to what can be done by the faithful use of few means, we should open our eyes to the bewildering magnitude of what is reasonably expected of the Church during the century before us.

If, with the limited resources of numbers, wealth, and education of the past, the Church has been God's chosen instrument for so much good, what may we look for from her present vast resources. Let us, during this year of our happy epoch of history, solemnly impress ourselves with our vast responsibility.

The Committee recommend the following: -

- 1. That one or more sermons should be preached in all our pulpits immediately, where it has not already been done, setting forth the work of God among us in the past, its present condition, with its future demands upon the present church in educational and ministerial labors.
- 2. That conventions and large meetings be held throughout the respective districts, when and wherever judged best, early in the month of October.
- 3. That brief religious exercises be held in all our churches daily during the month, except when and where they might interfere with the more public meetings above specified.
- 4. That, on the second Sabbath in October, a sermon should be preached on our general educational interests as connected with the prosperity of the church, education in all its departments, with a full and impartial statement of the plan of the General Centenary Committee, without an appeal for donations.
  - 5. That these or similar exercises should be continued on the third Sabbath, with such variations as may suggest themselves at the time, to be closed by a direct appeal for the free-will offerings of a devoted and grateful people.

6. We recommend the adoption of the general plan presented by the committee, and its submission to the good sense and pious emotion of the people, including the recommendation that the connectional educational fund, and the Sunday-school children's fund, shall be referred to the ensuing General Conference, and be subject to the disposal of the same.

- 7. It is recommended that all contributions for our local and Conference educational purposes,—the Biblical Institute, New-Hampshire Conference Seminary and Female College, and Wesleyan University, be taken charge of by the Trustees of the Conference,—to be appropriated to such objects as the Conference may judge best.
- 8. We acknowledge with thanksgiving the great and boundless blessings conferred on the Church thus far by our Biblical Institute and Wesleyan University, whose future we hope may be marked by still greater success; but we recognize in our Conference Seminaries the power that feeds them, without which they would utterly fail; and it is equally apparent that without our seminaries the mass of our youth can have no education under the auspices of our own Church, and will be largely lost to us in the future.
- 9. We are deliberately of the opinion, that, under the present circumstances, our Church in this Conference is fully able to raise, during the memorial year, the sum of $60,000
- 10. To accomplish such a noble result, we propose that a committee of nine persons be appointed to co-operate with the Presiding Elders and a specially appointed agent, who shall have charge of all the preliminary arrangements and the appropriation of all the moneys according to their designation, and the proper division of all the unspecified funds according to their best judgment. We recommend the following committee: Rev. J. Pike, Rev. L. D. Barrows, Rev. E. Adams, Rev. J. Thurston, Rev. S. Holman, Hon. T. L. Tullock, William A. Berry, Esq., Hon. C. H. Eastman, and Isaae Eaton, Esq.
- 11. We recommend the appointment of Rev. C. Holman as a general agent to superintend all their arrangements, and act in concert with the Presiding Elders and the above-mentioned committee, devoting such time as may be necessary, and to be paid accordingly by this committee out of funds raised among us for both connectional and local purposes proportionately.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The committee find the documents referred to them present the claims of the Church Extension Society for our whole denomination, organized by the last General Conference, and invite our co-operation.

A movement, which shall substitute for the irregular and irresponsible manner in which this work has often been done in the past an agency worthy to be placed among the "methods of our Methodism," is certainly greatly to be desired; and your committee hail with satisfaction the effort to accomplish this, which the papers before us show to have been officially inaugurated.

In view of the whole subject, the following resolutions are submitted for adoption by the Conference: -

Resolved, 1. That, in the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, we recognize an organization greatly needed to give proper system and increased efficiency to the work of church extension among us.

Resolved, 2. That we will take, in all our charges, the annual collection for the Church Extension Society ordered in the Discipline.

Resolved, 3. That, wherever practicable, we will take said collection at the time designated by the Conference; and, in view of the vast openings for church extension now in the providence of God before us, we recognize it to be our duty to endeavor to secure a response second only to that which is made to our general missionary cause.

Resolved, 4. That we proceed to organize a Conference Church Extension Society, auxiliary to the Church Extension Society of the M. E. Church.

FASTING AND PRAYER.

The committee to whom was referred the preamble and resolutions on the subject of fasting and prayer beg leave to report as follows; viz.:-

That, while we acknowledge with gratitude to God the signal prosperity of our Zion in some of the elements of Wesleyan Methodism, we are painfully impressed with a marked decline in some others, of vital if not paramount importance. We mourn over a great apathy in feeding the fires of vital godliness and zeal in personal efforts for the salvation of men, attended with a lamentable neglect of the daily means of grace, and an alarming conformity to the spirit and extravagant fashions of the world, accompanied with a marked laxity in the administration of the discipline of the Church in most of our pastoral charges. These grave facts make their appeal to this body as under-shepherds to come to the rescue, and apply a remedy; and it is especially desirable, in celebrating the Centenary of American Methodism, to commemorate for the past, and perpetuate in the future, her genuine and not her spurious elements: therefore Resolved, 1. That the Friday next preceding the first Sabbath of October next be, and is hereby, appointed and set apart as a day of humiliation, fasting, and prayer, to implore the divine favor and blessing upon the Church, and especially to give efficiency and success in the administration of the discipline; and also that God would pour out his spirit and revive his work throughout our Zion; that he would call and thrust out more laborers into his harvest, that our work may be fully manned with workmen "filled with faith and the Holy Ghost."

Resolved, 2. That, on the Sabbath next preceding (said day), each preacher in charge be earnestly requested to deliver one discourse or more in relation to all the points above designated; and thus endeavor to prepare the way for a successful effort in restoring the Church to the old scriptural landmarks of the fathers.

Resolved, 3. That the pastor and flock of each charge be earnestly requested to observe the designated day strictly as a religious fast, abstaining from secular labor and physical indulgence; that they assemble in their respective places of worship for mutual self-examination, confession, and earnest prayer for an all-pervading, pentecostal outpouring of the divine Spirit; to promote most effectively all the above-named objects, that entire victory over the world, and an unreserved consecration of heart and life to God, may be the glorious and permanent results.

BIBLE CAUSE.

In view of the enlarged operations of the American Bible Society, at home and abroad; in the supply of the vast destitution in our Southern country, and of the freedmen as they become able to use the Bible; in the openings in Mexico, where the grace of God seems to be preparing the way for his word; in the wide field in Brazil, and other countries in South America, opening with unusual interest; and in the great work of beginning to supply the Mohammedan world with a new and beautiful translation of the Holy Scriptures,—all coming upon the Society in the closing year of the first half-century of its operations, therefore.

Resolved, 1. That we will firmly sustain the American Bible Society in its onward movements according to our ability.

Resolved, 2. That, to this end, we will encourage and sustain the Bible organizations in this State which are auxiliary to the American Bible Society.

Resolved, 3. That we recommend, wherever practicable, the raising of money by collectors throughout all our charges.

Resolved, 4. That we make an increasing effort in raising funds for the So-

Resolved, 5. That it is necessary, to a full representation of our Church as an aid to the American Bible Society, that all amounts paid to its agents or an aid to the American Bible Society, that all amounts paid to its agents or treasurers be reported to the Conference for publication in the Minutes.

Resolved, 6, That we respectfully recommend that the New-Hampshire Bible Society provide for a general canvass of each town in the State; and that the canvassers credit, and accurately report, what amount is collected from the members, respectively, of the various religious societies in each town.

The Committee on the New-Hampshire Conference Seminary and Female College have the honor to report,—

That of the $2,500 which the Conference, at its session of 1865, appropriated in order to complete their seminary and college buildings, $2,045 have been paid in cash, $155 satisfactorily secured, leaving unprovided for $300.

The Committee are of the opinion that the Conference should provide for this balance of three hundred dollars to the last dollar.

They therefore submit the following resolutions: —

Resolved, 1. That the Conference acknowledges its obligation to pay whatever remains unpaid of the $2,500 it last year appropriated to the benefit of its Seminary and Female College.

Resolved, 2. That the Trustees of this Conference be, and they are hereby, instructed to give to the Trustees of the New-Hampshire Conference Seminary and Female College satisfactory security for the $300 due them until the same shall be paid.

Resolved, 3. That the Presiding Elders be, and they are hereby, appointed agents in behalf of the Conference for their respective districts to collect of delinquent persons or churches, during the year, what remains unpaid of the apportionments for this purpose which were made at the last Conference.

MEMOIRS.

REV. JUSTIN SPAULDING was born in Morristown, Vt., in 1802, and died in his native town in 1865.

He was converted in early life, and joined the New-England Conference in 1823. As a circuit and stationed preacher, as a presiding elder, and as a missionary to South America, he was faithful, acceptable, and useful. He for many years filled honorably positions of much importance and distinction in the Church. He was one year a member of the General Conference, and continued active in its service until, by God's inscrutable providence, he was compelled to take a superannuated relation. This relation continued through several of his last years.

Brother Spaulding was possessed of many fine traits of character. He was an accomplished Christian gentleman, a good scholar, and an "able minister of the New Testament." In private life, he was the true and genial friend, and a most affectionate and attentive husband and father. He rests at last; and his memory will long be cherished by thousands in our churches and commu-

REV. J. A. SCARRITT was born in Simsbury, Conn., 1790, and was converted to God while young. He joined the New-England Conference in 1815, and, with the exception of three years' location on account of domestic cares, he continued in the itinerancy until his death. Brother Scarritt was a noble specimen of the early Methodist itinerants, -- pious, devoted, firm and faithful. He was emphatically a strong man; bold, vigorous, unwearied, self-sacrificing. He filled with great usefulness many of our first stations, and also that of presiding elder.* For a few of his last years he was superannuated; but his love for Jesus and the Church was unabated; and his labors, as his strength would allow, continued to the last. His death was sudden, but he died well. His death occurred at Sandwich, N.H., Nov. 12, 1865.

SECTION VIII.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we recognize the New-England Education Society as an efficient aid in the educational work; that it is assisting more largely than ever a class of worthy young men who would be unable to continue their studies without it. We recommend that the New-Hampshire Conference raise, the ensuing year, $500, and that said sum be apportioned to the several districts and stations.

Resolved, That we approve the proposed New-England Convention, to be held in Boston in June next, and will do what we can to make it suc-

Whereas, The brethren of the Lowell Street M. E. Church of Nashua are preparing to build a new church, which they greatly need, and are not able without assistance to build so large and good a church as their situation and circumstances require, therefore,

Resolved, That the preacher in charge of that station has the approval of this Conference in soliciting aid among his friends, or wherever he may be invited to present his cause.

Resolved, That the Presiding Elders be a committee to give orders to the societies in their respective charges, on Bro. J. P. Magee, for tracts.

Resolved, That we, the members of the New-Hampshire Conference, express our thanks to the people of this place for their kind and hospitable entertainment during our stay among them; also to the various railroad companies who have reduced their fares for the accommodation of the members of this Conference.

BISHOPS OF THE M. E. CHURCH.

The demand for the new steel engraving of the BISHOPS OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, recently issued by the subscribers, is ample evidence of how much such a picture is desired, and how heartily this beautiful work of art meets the approval of the Methodist public. Without any effort in the way of advertising, over two thousand copies have already been sold.

The picture was engraved by Mr. J. C. Buttre, of New York, and is pronounced by all who have seen it a perfect success. The number of heads being nine, they make a perfect oval group. The venerable and portly form of Bishop Morris occupies the centre, and around him his colleagues are arranged in the order of their official seniority. All know how rare a thing it is for the engraver to produce a single satisfactory likeness; how much more difficult, in a group of nine, for the artist to avoid the general sameness, and often tameness, observable in such pictures, and to give the characteristic individuality of each as happily and perfectly as in a single successful likeness! The whole is surrounded and interwoven by an elegant and significant border, designed by Mr. C. A. Barry, of Boston; the Christian and National emblems being tastefully blended.

The size of the plate is fourteen by eighteen inches, printed on a sheet seventeen by twenty-one inches.

The retail price is $1.50; to ministers and agents a liberal discount.

Any number of copies may be safely sent by mail on a roller. Orders may be sent to either of the publishers.

THE AMERICAN ORGANS are the ONLY REAL REED ORGANS now before the public,—The only Organ having a REVERBERATING SOUND-BOX or WIND-CHEST, which has the same important part to perform as the Sounding Board has in a Piano Forte (to give body and resonance of tone), and without which the Organ becomes merely a Melodeon in an Organ Case The American Organs not only have the Wind Chest, or Sound Roy, but have the Wing Organ Real was diving proven and great steadings of tone of the Computer of the a Melodeon in an Organ Case — The American Organs not only have the Wind Chest, or Sound Box, but have the large Organ Bellows, giving power and great steadiness of tone. ### TESTIMONIALS.

We offer, with just pride, the following, kindly sent us by a firm doing the largest business of any in the country, and the oldest and most reputable of them all: -

MESSRS. GEORGE M. GUILD & CO. Gentlemen,—We have rented and sold your Pianos extensively within the past four years, and recommend them as being in EVERY RESPECT reliable and satisfactory. In our renting business, we have ALWAYS found them to stand REMARKABLY WELL IN TUNE, giving entire satisfaction. BOSTON, Dec. 20, 1865.

OLIVER DITSON & CO.

The following is from Geo. Hews, Esq., of Boston, the veteran manufacturer, late Vice-President of the Handel and Haydn Society, Pianist, Teacher, &c .: -

Messes, G. M. Guild & Co. Dear Sirs, —It is but an act of justice to you to acknowledge that, among the numerous Piano Fortes by various manufacturers, rented by me for several years past, those made by your firm, in point of strength, durability, and all the requisites of a good instrument, have not been surpassed. I cheerfully recommend them to all persons in search of a first-class instrument.

GEORGE HEWS.

In consequence of the highly favorable manner in which our Instruments have been received by the best judges, in all parts of the country, orders have flowed in upon us so rapidly that we have never been able yet to fill them—much less to get ahead of them. Recent additions to our machinery, however, enable us at the present time, we are happy to say, to turn out at least twenty Pianos per week; and having just effected the renting of an additional factory, we expect in the course of a few weeks, to produce at least thirty per week. We hope thus to meet the pressing demands upon us.

By continued and exclusive devotion to our business, we hope to retain the confidence of the community which has been so generously awarded us in the past.

GEORGE M. GUILD & CO
